17 NOV 2024

INDEPENDENT DISCIPLINARY PANEL ANNOUNCEMENT

Image not found or type unknown

An Independent Disciplinary Panel has concluded its investigation into accreditation irregularities during the Paris 2024 Olympic Games.

The Disciplinary Panel, after a full investigation, found no wilful misconduct by John Helmick but that he delegated entirely to a third party, without ensuring an adequate level of control in the supervision of accreditation, thereby violating article 2.1 (l) of the UIPM Code of Ethics.

Click here for more information.

UIPM will make no further comment.