

09 DEC 2013

LESUN IN POLE FOR MEN WORLDS FINAL COMBINED

Image not found or type unknown

After a score of in the penultimate event of the day on the horse, Russian defending champion Aleksander Lesun move top of the leaderboard with just the run/shoot to go in the Men's World Championships Final.

He will have a four second head-start at the starting grid with Lithuania's Justinas Kinderis leading the chasing pack.

Dmytro Kirpulyanskyy of Ukraine and Nick Woodbridge of Great Britain are 9 seconds behind Lesun.