The President of the Russian Modern Pentathlon Federation and UIPM Vice-President for Business Affairs Vyacheslav Aminov was on 29 May elected to the Executive Board of the Russian Olympic Committee. The ROC EB is formed of 25 prominent members of the Russian sports world.

With Russia having been one the leading countries in terms of athletes' development in the last few years under the stewardship of Viacheslav Aminov, his presence on the Executive Board will only help to raise the profile of Modern Pentathlon in both the country and abroad.
