France, one of the world's strongest nations in Modern Pentathlon, demonstrated again the power of their pentathletes with a great result at the UIPM 2015 World Cup #4.

As part of the preparation for the 2015 European Senior Championships, the French Team of Modern Pentathlon is opening the centre of excellence INSEP in Paris for a training camp, from July 26 to 16 August 2015.

The rate per day per person is 75 euros in a double room and 85 euros in a single room. This rate includes meals and the use of sports facilities at the INSEP.

The riding sessions will be held at the riding school UCPA with the cost of 25 euros per session and per rider.
